U.S. Appeals To Allies For Tighter Noose

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is appealing to Allied governments to join in tightening an economic noose around Cuba following President Johnson's decision to separate the Guantanamo naval base completely from the Cuban economy and water supply.

Johnson in effect told Cuba to keep its water.

The presidential decision was announced by the State Department Friday night after a day-long series of conferences on how the United States should react to Prime Minister Fidel Castro's action Thursday in cutting the fresh water supply to the naval base.

At the same time a White House statement warned of the dangers of "further provocations by Castro" and declared that the prospects "should be carefully weighed by all nations."

This was taken to include a nod to the Kremlin to consider where Soviet support of the Cuban regime may be leading.

"The reckless and irresponsible conduct of the Cuban government remains a constant threat to the peace of this hemisphere," the White House said. "It added that 'these matters' will be discussed with other Western Hemisphere nations in the Organization of American States and with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization allies."

Shortly before the White House announcement that Guantanamo would be made self-sufficient in water supplies, Secretary of State Dean Rusk pictured Castro as probably undertaking a concerted campaign to force the United States to abandon the big naval base on Cuba's eastern end.

"The basic fact is," Rusk told a news conference, "that we are in Guantanamo and will remain there for the foreseeable future."

Later Cuban President Osvaldo Dorticos issued a statement on Havana radio to, he said, rebut Rusk's declaration that "we are making a premeditated campaign to expel the United States from Guantanamo."

"We will claim the base in the moment we consider convenient and will use the ways of international organizations that we will consider convenient for our claim," said Dorticos.

Johnson ordered the Defense Department to make Guantanamo self-sufficient.

With this order, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, the statement said, issued instructions to:

"Assure the base control over its own water supply both by conversion of sea water to fresh water and by the transportation of water by ship."

"Reduce the employment of Cuban personnel who are subject to the control of the Cuban government and whose wages contribute to its foreign exchange."

Asked if the Cuban water would be used if Castro turned it back on, a Defense Department spokesman said, "No. The new instruction means that we do not anticipate having to use water again from that source."

Administration officials said the President and his advisers believe the decision on the base.

Janitor Refuses To Empty Trays

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Douglas Aircraft Co. says it has fired a janitor who refused to empty ash trays for fear of developing cancer from contact with cigarette butts. A spokesman said the janitor was concerned by a U.S. surgeon general's report on health hazards of cigarette smoking.

Cold Air Has Moved Into Arkansas

Cold air moved into Arkansas today as skies cleared. Cool temperatures were expected over the weekend and rain was not forecast until the first of next week.

Maximum temperatures Thursday were generally in the 50s and low 60s. Overnight minimums were in the 20s and 30s, compared to the 40s Thursday morning.

The five-day outlook calls for temperatures to average two to six degrees below normal with only minor day to day changes. The U. S. Weather Bureau at Little Rock predicts precipitation of one-quarter to three-quarters of an inch, mainly over the south portion during the first of next week.

Boy Scouts Celebrating Scout Week

Each of the 31 Cub Scout packs, Boy Scout troops and Explorer posts of the Piney Woods District which includes Hempstead, Howard, Lafayette, and Nevada counties will celebrate Boy Scout Week, February 7 to 13. The observance marks the 56th anniversary of the incorporation of the movement at Washington, D.C., and its theme is "Strengthen America — Scouting Can Make the Difference."

Today is Anniversary Day and members will rededicate themselves to ideals of Scouting at 8:15 p.m., a tradition of more than half a century. Scouts will renew their pledges in their homes or elsewhere. Individual members often take the Scout Oath before their parents.

On Sunday Scouts will observe Boy Scout Sunday by wearing their uniforms as they accompany their parents to church. A special service will be held in the Methodist Church. The sermon will be "Scouting on the Trail of Life."

In Piney Woods District membership in scouting has increased by 40.8% in 1963.

The District served 308 boys, 77 adults, and 10 units registered in Scouting in Hope alone.

Charge Right Wing Films in Schools

MEMPHIS (AP) — A labor leader charged today school children here are being brainwashed by right-wing films on communism.

William Ross of the city AFL-CIO Labor Council denounced three films approved for showings in parochial and county communism as a front to present anti-labor ideas.

"In the name of communism," he said, "right-wingers can get almost anyone to listen to them. Then they add enough poison propaganda to serve their own purposes."

The Rev. John Elliott, diocesan superintendent of Roman Catholic schools in Tennessee, said, "These films are rather strong, hitting hard on communism. They show that there is danger of infiltration. I don't see that they could be considered a smear against any group."

The director of instruction for county schools, Arthur Rauscher, said the criticism was unfounded.

"I didn't see anything in them that would indicate they were anti-labor," he said. "It seems to me just the opposite, that they were protecting the wage earner by opposing communism."

The films, sponsored by Freedom Projects of Brookfield, Mass., are "What Is Communism?" and "An American Story." The first two films were made under the National Education Program at Harding College in Searcy, Ark., and narrated by Herbert Philbrick, former FBI agent who posed as a communist.

Meet to Plan Hope Festival of Fine Arts

REPRESENTATIVES OF CITY GROUPS MET at 4 p.m. Friday in the Hotel Barlow dining room at the call of Mrs. B. C. Hyatt to organize for the projected Hope Festival of Fine Arts April 26 - May 10.

STANDING: B. N. HOLT, BILL FLANDERS, MITCH LaGrone, Eddie Whitman, Roger Pitts, George Frazier, Mrs. Howard Prichard, Mrs. Calvin Smith, Mrs. Talbot Feild, Jr., and Mrs. Arch Wylie.

MRS. HYATT EXPLAINED THAT THE FRIDAY Music Club which has held its Spring Music Festival in the past hopes this year to expand it into a festival covering all the arts — from fine paintings to a hootenany — and has been assured the co-operation of all local organizations.

THE ARTS PROGRAM WILL BE ANNOUNCED IN detail later, and additional central organization meetings will be scheduled as required, Mrs. Hyatt said.

Temperature to Dip in Southwest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Temperatures as low as zero were expected today in large areas of the nation's Southwest, where unusual back-to-back blizzards have paralyzed entire communities and marooned thousands of travelers for nearly a week.

The new cold air mass, with snow-whipping winds, complicated attempts to clear highways as much as 30 inches of snow and to get supplies to isolated towns. Temperatures should rise sharply during the day, however, the Weather Bureau said.

Three counties in New Mexico were declared emergency areas — San Miguel, Union and Quay counties — and about 100 National Guardsmen worked with M42 tanks to take ranch families to town.

Unless the new storm keeps temperatures below 20 degrees the economic damage was expected to be light.

Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said the over-all effect of moisture in long-parched areas greatly offset any immediate damages.

The biggest losses so far come from cattle being slaughtered when they wandered onto railroad tracks. Other livestock were being taken feed in six-wheel drive trucks and were expected to survive the weather unless the freeze intensified.

At last 10 persons were known dead, five in Texas and five in New Mexico. Helicopters from Cannon Air Force Base scoured the countryside for families who needed help and other possible victims.

Skies cleared Thursday night over New Mexico and the Texas Panhandle, after the new blizzard's blast of snow ended in mid-afternoon.

The only road still reported closed in the two states was U.S. 66 from northeast of Amarillo at White Deer, Tex., to the Oklahoma border.

Activity on highways was still at the crawling stage, however, as blowing snow drifts kept the icy roads dangerously narrow. One-lane traffic only was permitted in some areas.

Judge Seeking Special Election

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Three of the four county judges in the 6th Senatorial District want a special election to elect a state senator, Gov. Orval E. Faubus said Thursday.

They are judges Roy W. Stockton of Polk County, Ray Sikes of Little River County and Jones Floyd of Howard County, Faubus said.

He said Sevier County Judge Tom S. Coulter does not object to a special election.

The district will be without representation until a successor is elected and qualified to serve the remaining two years of the term of the late state Sen. Nathan G. Coulter of Nashville.

Young McLarty Tells About Trip to Washington as Arkansas' Junior Senator

By MARY ANITA LASETER
Star Feature Writer

"Seeing the sincere, hard-working, intelligent men in our government putting forth every effort to do what they feel is right and knowing that Arkansas has some of the finest representation in our nation's capital made the trip to Washington, D. C., with the other Junior Senators worth-while for me," said Mac McLarty, who has recently returned home from a week-long trip sponsored by the Hearst Foundation.

He explained that whether a person is for or against the senators and representatives, it must be acknowledged that they work and work hard as much as 15 hours a day. He met Senators Morton, Keating, Randolph, and McGovern and was particularly impressed with the South Dakota Sen. McGovern. Of course, as a Junior Senator from Arkansas, he had long interviews with Senators Fulbright and McClellan and Representatives Hiram and Mills.

The 102 delegates represented each of the 50 states and the District of Columbia. Thirty of the delegates were girls and one of those, a delegate from Houston, Tex., was the only Negro. The Hawaiians were natives of their islands, and one of the delegates from Alaska was an Eskimo.

This was the first such delegation to occupy the entire Senate at one time. There was also a luncheon in the Senate dining room at which the 102 boys and girls were joined by 73 Senators, a record number for such an occasion. The visitors toured historical landmarks in the capital city and went to the late President Kennedy's grave where Protestant, Catholic, Jewish, and Mormon prayers were offered.

A tea at the White House gave the Junior Senators an opportunity to meet the entire Johnson family. For the fashion-conscious women readers, Mac said Mrs. Johnson and Lynda Bird wore red, and that Lynda B. is very tall like her father. Lucy Baines is shorter but not as attractive (one man's opinion).

After visits with Arkansas senators and representatives, the Junior Senator from Hope and the other Arkansas delegate, Mayo Lee of Clarendon, learned that all actual work is done in committees and that time spent on the floor of Congress is, more or less, wasted.

The meeting with Secretary of State Dean Rusk occurred only two hours after his return flight from the Far East, an example of the frenzied pace the men in government keep. Nevertheless, he took time to meet the Junior Senators and be interviewed by them.

One of the most enjoyable phases of the Washington trip was a visit to the FBI Building, where the group met J. Edgar Hoover. The FBI Chief was most cordial and saw to it that they were shown through the lab and the museum.

From the jet plane trips to Washington, to the accommodations at the Mayflower Hotel, to the Friday night dance in the Mayflower ballroom, and even to tips the Hearst Foundation took care of all expenses for an estimated cost of $120,000.

In a ceremony at the hotel each of the Junior Senators was presented a flag that had flown over the capitol, and the presentations were made by the senators of the states the delegates represented. Sen. Fulbright presented the U.S. flag to Mac McLarty, and on Thursday of this week in a special assembly at Hope High School he gave it to the school.

Thanks to Mac the stars and stripes at HHS once flew over the U.S. Capitol.

Instructor Pays Heavy Fine

NEW YORK (AP) — Kathryn Macinick, 35, of Bayside, Queens, faces trial on charges of reckless driving, driving without a license, speeding, driving with improper lights, failing to comply with a policeman's signal and changing lanes.

She's paid $180 in fines for other traffic violations.

And there are 14 other traffic charges still pending. Mrs. Macinick said Thursday in court she once was an instructor for a driving school.

Won't Forget Being Stuck in the Snow

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — One of two frostbitten encyclopedia salesmen who spent 15 days trapped in a car in the snow-covered Sierra, summed it up this way:

"Man, this was the experience I'll never forget!"

Tom Penland, a prospector who fed them after they stumbled 10 miles through hip-deep snow, said:

"They were kinda bedraggled looking, so I invited them in and gave them something to eat. They complained about sore feet and told me they had walked part of the way in the snow in their stocking feet."

Paul Froelich, 44, Pleasant Hill, Calif., and James Ginrich, 22, Sudbury, Ontario, survived with nothing worse than the frost bite and malnutrition. They staggered to Penland's cabin door Tuesday night. They were rescued Thursday by a sheriff's constable after Mrs. Froelich filed a missing persons report.

Neither man was hospitalized.

Froelich and Ginrich ran into trouble Jan. 21 when their car became stuck in snow and a howling blizzard isolated them. "The car had nothing in it but some books, my top coat, and some advertising material," Froelich, the father of two children, said.

"We managed to get through the freezing nights by wrapping the advertising stuff around us."

They used the car's heater until the auto ran out of gasoline. They survived on melted snow alone.

"We sure got hungry," Froelich said. "We passed the time reading our own material — books — and Jim made some playing cards out of some of the advertising material."

After they had hiked to Penland's cabin, they were told that they had been within two miles of a forest service station.

And, it is always stocked with food.

Our Senators Help Beat Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sens. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., and John L. McClellan, D-Ark., helped defeat Thursday an amendment to the tax reduction bill which would have created a graduated reduction in the oil depletion allowance.

The measure failed 61-23. Fulbright voted for an amendment to remove the 10 per cent federal excise tax on tickets to live theater productions. McClellan opposed the amendment, which lost 59-33.

Both voted against an amendment which would have reduced the depletion allowance from 27½ to 15 per cent for oil and gas companies with gross income between $1 and $5 million. The amendment failed 57-35.

Bids on Canal to Be Opened

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Army Engineers will open bids April 16 on construction of the western six miles of the Arkansas Post Canal. The canal will connect the Arkansas and White Rivers in Southeast Arkansas. Estimated cost of the work is $4 million.

Demo Leaders Set Goal For U.S. Tax Cut

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic congressional leaders, spurred on by President Johnson, today fixed Feb. 19 or 20 as the goal for final action on the largest tax cut in U.S. history.

The benefits, including more dollars in take-home pay, would begin about the first of March.

The Senate passed its $11.6-billion version of the legislation Friday, 77 to 21, well ahead of the original Feb. 11 deadline fixed by its leaders.

Even before the final vote, Johnson was conferring with his Capitol Hill lieutenants about speeding up plans for the Senate-House conference to reconcile the differences between the two chambers' versions.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., who heads the Senate delegation, told a reporter it was decided to begin the conference next Monday instead of Feb. 17 as planned earlier.

He said that the conferees could meet only on Monday and Tuesday next week since Republicans will be leaving town for Lincoln Day speeches.

But he said the explanation of what changes the Senate made in the $11.1-billion version passed by the House would be covered in those two days, so that voting can start when the conference reconvenes on Feb. 17.

Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., another conferee, said that under this schedule the Senate-House group should be able to come up with compromise bill by Feb. 18 or 19. A final vote could come one day later.

If this schedule is met, the benefits of the bill should start flowing about March 1. The Senate version provides that the reduction in wage and salary withholding to reflect the cuts in income tax rates shall begin one week after the bill is signed.

The Senate completed its consideration of the bill in seven days, four of them involving night sessions. On the final vote, 56 Democrats and 21 Republicans supported the bill. Opposed were 11 Democrats, including eight Southerners, and 10 Republicans.

The House and Senate versions are identical in their rate reductions for the nation's 80 million individual and 550,000 corporate taxpayers. Thus there is no question of their eventual adoption.

The Senate bill, however, would immediately cut the 18 per cent withholding rate to 14 per cent instead of to 15 per cent as voted by the House.

House managers have indicated that they will go along with the lower rate, which was asked by Johnson, but perhaps insist that companies be given longer than one week to put it into effect in issuing pay checks. Many firms have said it is impossible to do it in a week.

When the 14 per cent rate takes effect, it will pour an additional $800 million a month into the economy. The administration is counting on this to stimulate economic growth, create more jobs and bring in additional tax revenue.

10-Year-Old Gives Birth by Caesarian

MEXICO CITY (AP) — A 10-year-old girl gave birth by Caesarian section Thursday night, a spokesman for a government health ministry hospital said.

The spokesman, Dr. Manuel Tenorio Ojeda, said the baby, a boy, was suffering from severe respiratory difficulties and was placed in an incubator without being weighed.

He said the mother was Maria Sanchez Gonzalez, a servant, and the father was unknown.

Russia Warns Keep Hands Off Of Cyprus

By ALEX EFTY

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — The Soviet Union has injected itself directly into the Cyprus crisis by warning the United States and Britain to keep their hands off the strife-torn island.

While his ambassador called on President Archbishop Makarios in Nicosia, Soviet Premier Khrushchev took up the Cyprus issue in Moscow Friday, describing a proposed North Atlantic Treaty Organization peace force as "an armed invasion."

In identical notes to leaders of the United States, Britain, France, Greece and Turkey, Khrushchev accused some members of the Atlantic alliance of attempting to prevent a solution by the U.N. Security Council.

Khrushchev termed the proposed 10,000-man temporary peace keeping force a "crude encroachment on the sovereignty, independence and freedom of the Republic of Cyprus, an attempt to place this small neutral state under the military control of NATO."

He said the Soviet Union could not remain indifferent to developments so close to its southern borders.

Soviet Ambassador Pavel Yermoshin delivered another Khrushchev message to Makarios, but a spokesman for the Greek Cypriot leader refused to divulge its contents.

Although he has expressed willingness to accept a foreign police force on the island, Makarios wants the troops under U.N. control. The United States and Britain have rejected this condition because they regard it as an opening for Soviet interference on Cyprus.

In the past, the Russians have opposed U.N. peacekeeping operations in the Middle East and the Congo.

In London, the British Foreign Office described Khrushchev's note as a "gross misrepresentation of the situation."

"It is impossible to believe it is intended to be a constructive contribution towards solving the Cyprus problem," the Foreign Office statement said.

A deadlock continued at the London peace conference on Cyprus. The Turkish Cypriot delegation flew home after describing the situation as very grim.

The Greek Cypriot representatives also were scheduled to return to Nicosia.

A new outbreak of shooting between Greek and Turkish Cypriots occurred Friday in the mountains overlooking the port of Kyrenia, on the north coast of Cyprus 25 miles from Nicosia.

Wheat Deal With Russia Hits Boycott

By NEIL GILBRIDE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The export of about $70-million worth of U.S. wheat to the Soviet Union faces the threat of being bogged down on American docks by a longshoremen's boycott.

President Thomas W. Gleason of the AFL-CIO International Longshoremen's Association made the threat at a frequently stormy Maritime Administration hearing.

Charging that foreign-flag vessels that had been "dealing with the enemy" were being given precedence over U.S. ships in the wheat deal, Gleason said: "Let the Russians go to hell. Let them starve. Tell them to take it the way we send it, or don't send it at all."

Gleason said Thursday he would recommend to the union's Executive Council that the 55,000 longshoremen refuse to load any of the wheat being exported by Continental Grain Co. unless more U.S. ships are used.

Acting Maritime Administrator Robert E. Giles told Gleason: "What you are saying is that you and your Executive Council should make foreign policy instead of the President."

The hearing was held to consider Continental's application for a waiver permitting shipment of less than 50 per cent of the nearly 1 million tons of wheat in U.S. vessels.

Continental contended not enough U.S. ships are available for February and March shipments under federal regulations requiring that at least 50 per cent move in American ships if available.

May Change Chair for Gas Chamber

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A proposal for exchanging the electric chair for the gas chamber as Arkansas' method of executing criminals will be one of two matters of routine business that the Legislative Council will handle when it meets next week to study voter registration.

The other proposal calls for a study of Arkansas' program for aiding dental students who get their education outside the state because Arkansas has no dental school.

The proposals probably will be brought up and referred to committees for study.

The gas chamber proposal was submitted by Benton County Rep. Roy H. Galyean, a Baptist minister and a long-time foe of capital punishment.

Galyean said that death by electrocution is "brutal, gruesome and horrifying" and that the gas chamber would provide a more humane method of execution.

The dental school proposal was brought up by Ashley County Rep. N. B. Murphy, who said the current dental aid ap-

'Hillbillies' Pure Escape for Laughs

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "The Beverly Hillbillies," in its second season as the most popular television program on the networks, is "pure escape, just for laughs," in the words of Paul Henning who dreamed up the whole show.

"I'd finished up five years of writing 'The Bob Cummings Show,'" Henning recalled, "and spent the next two months driving 14,000 miles around the country. That was in 1959, and I was finding television drama depressing—everything seemed to start with mayhem and then get worse."

"I decided that if I ever did another TV show, it would be for the people who live in Kentucky, Iowa, Illinois, Virginia—all those places between the two coasts where people don't think they are sophisticated."

The result has been a phenomenal success.

"It is just for amusement," he reiterated, "no messages, no illnesses, no violence, no rebellious kids—just simple good humor. And we've had literally thousands of letters that say in effect, 'Thank you for a half hour in which I could forget my troubles.'"

The success of the series made Henning's TV's man of the hour, and this season he launched another series, "Petticoat Junction," also on CBS. And that comedy, less broad but still country-style, immediately became a hit.

Burr Tillstrom will be back on tonight's "That Was the Week That Was" on NBC. The puppeteer, not a regular member of the revue cast, has done its two most brilliant commentaries to date: a pantomime, showing only his hands and wrists, that demonstrated the tragedy of the Berlin wall in the premiere show, and a dialogue between a puppet Castro and Khrushchev in last week's program.

Recommended Sunday viewing: "Return to Oz," NBC, 5-6 p.m. (Eastern Standard Time)—cartoon musical based on the famous children's books; "20th Century," CBS, 6-7—tribute to song writer Harold Arlen; Ed Sullivan Show, CBS, 8-9—starring "The Beatles," English rock 'n' roll quartet; "White Paper," NBC, 10-11—documentary on the Cuban missile crisis.

Looks Back on Hollywood as Experience

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Anne Bancroft, the incumbent Oscar winner, was in town this week, but not for long.

She was here from her New York home just long enough to do a comedy skit with Bob Hope in which she plays the first woman president. It will be featured on the Hope television show Feb. 14.

Ah, that's how it seems to be with Oscar winners in recent years—they win the big prize and Hollywood hardly sees them again. Some local citizens figured Miss Bancroft absented herself from the town because of her previous experience here. She spent seven lackluster years playing in B movies.

Yet she displayed not a trace of bitterness. "Do I regret those years?" she says. "Not in the least. I often look back on them with a degree of fondness. They were carefree times and I really had a great deal of enjoyment."

But did she learn anything for her craft? "No, nothing of any value. When I left, I was undergoing a difficult period. I was getting a divorce (from builder Martin May, and that was bad. Also, I wanted to know if I should continue in the acting field. I wasn't so sure that I should."

"So I went back to New York and began studying under Herbert Berghof. He told me yes, I should continue to be an actress and that I had potentialities."

They were soon realized. She tried out for the role of Gittel Mosca in William Gibson's "Two For the Seesaw." Her performance won critical raves and acting awards. A major reason for her success, she said, was because she had to work so hard.

Miss Bancroft went on to another William Gibson play, "The Miracle Worker," with equal success. This time the play's creators held onto the movie rights and filmed it themselves, with Anne and Patty Duke in their original roles. Both copped the big prize in a pleasant upset last April.

DOROTHY DIX

SHE WOULD GO IT ALONE

By Helen Worden Erskine

Dear Helen: In your recent reply to "One Who Knows" I cannot understand your logic when you say that the unhappy wife is better off than the most successful career girl, unless you consider that being unhappy is being well off.

Advice such as this certainly encourages the child marriages which all of society is trying to prevent.

How can an unhappy wife rear her children to be happy, well-adjusted adults? Or perhaps you advocate unhappiness for all. Perhaps you would eliminate "the pursuit of happiness" from our Bill of Rights.

I am a very happy, successful career girl of 52, looking back over a life of zestful living, blighted only by two marriages—one of five years, and another of two years' duration. Oh yes, there was one other blight. I took a girl of 14 to finish rearing, gave her love, her own car, everything a girl could want. I fitted her for a very lucrative career. In return I got no thanks, no love and no appreciation.

For your information, the human life, even the female's is endowed with satisfactions other than just the animals' instincts of eating, sleeping and reproducing its kind. —Another Who Knows

Dear Another: What a bitter letter! But just because you've been hurt twice by hard-hearted husbands and once by an ungrateful ward doesn't mean that all domestic relationships are as bleak and unproductive.

But they will continue to be for you until love replaces bitterness. Only when you've really suffered yourself can you be compassionate toward others. When I say that the unhappy wife is better off than the most successful career girl I mean just that for no unmarried woman ever lives fully and I'm not speaking of sex alone.

Dear Helen: I think the best advice you could give to "In Despair" who feels her husband spends too much time with his family is to tell her, "Fight him with fire!" She says her husband won't go to see her family and friends. Well, she shouldn't give him a chance to go to his parents every week. Invite them to her home and invite her parents too. Have a big family get-together and dinner every week, if necessary.

Eventually he will grow so tired of putting out the extra money for these family parties that he will be sick and tired of the whole shebang and ready to sit down and talk things over sensibly with his wife. —Interested Reader

Dear Helen: After reading the letter from "A Reader" published recently in your column I've just got to say my piece. Now I can see where real noisemakers could be very unpleasant as neighbors but some people only hear one side of the story.

If the family to whom your reader referred lived in a house and the children could still be heard whooping it up, then she has a case. But if they live in an apartment as I do, it's impossible not to hear your neighbors.

I'm not talking about constant noise and bickering or wild parties but everyday living with a 2-year-old in the family. My child is very active for his age and sometimes just won't listen to me—like any other normal two-year-old.

When I tell him to quiet down it doesn't always work so then I "raise my voice." As a consequence, one neighbor complains that I am forever yelling at the top of my lungs. If I try to please this neighbor and give my child more freedom than he deserves, my other neighbor bangs on the floor with her broom and complains that I don't discipline him enough.

I'm just about fed up with all this nonsense from people who can't stand hearing the ordinary prattle of children, or the running of little feet across floors. They shouldn't live in apartments where there are families with children. —Aggravated

Dear Aggravated: Silence is often more effective than words in disciplining a child. I have a friend who trained her small child by quietly saying "No" when it misbehaved. If the youngster still paid no attention she picked him up without a word, plunked him down in his crib and shut the door to his room behind her. Of course he yelled. The first time was the worst but when she paid no attention he realized Mama meant business and quieted down. Now, he listens when she says "No!"

that these two clowns had been given a reprieve, so I went to find out. When I opened the door it was Rick Cannard. You remember him?"

I shook my head.

"Bright young star of a couple of years ago. Talk of him being mentioned for an Academy Award. Anyway, he stood there in the doorway and began calling me names. Also, there were two things I should tell you. He knew where this room was and I deserved everything he said."

"I pulled him inside and closed the door. I thought with some introductions and a drink or two I could smooth things out. Only Rick didn't play it that way. He'd lost a lot of money and I had helped him lose it."

"Covalt was at the new good fortune stage where you can't talk that way about a lady, podner. He took Cannard exactly the way you saw him take Jack. Big dog shaking a terrier and then throwing it away. The kicking with square-toed boots, lumberjack fight, saloon fight. And before I got help Cannard was dead." She stroked my hand. "Not any Duffey around to till a windmill and save a life."

She ran her hand up through the back of her short-cropped hair. "It was less than three minutes from the time I reached the phone until the boys arrived. But it was about a minute and a half too late. And you have to see the boys, Duffey. Smooth boys, polished boys, and no more dangerous than a den of rattlesnakes."

She gave me both her hands, and I held them.

"Saunders went over and had a look at Rick. He moved him with his toe. Bent down and held a wrist. Asked me for a mirror. I got him a mirror. He put it close to Rick's mouth and nostrils. 'Dead,' he said. 'Better call Sammy.'"

"I called Sammy Shinn. Nobody knows how old Sammy is. He was busy in Cleveland from the day Prohibition became an amendment. He has a bald head like a polished billiard ball and eyes like polished steel. When he arrived, he didn't waste any time. He looked at Rick Cannard and said, 'Big name but no loss. A trouble.'"

"Mighty glad you feel that way, Sammy," Jack began. "Didn't say I felt that way." Sammy snapped. "You gentlemen have committed murder."

Cottrell Has Plan for Vote Registration

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Pulaski County Rep. J. H. Cottrell Jr. submitted today for consideration of the Legislative Council a proposed voter registration bill which would require re-registration each year.

Cottrell's is the first of several bills expected to be presented to the council during a hearing on voter registration which starts Monday. The council will try to write a bill for consideration by a forthcoming special legislative session.

The Cottrell bill does not have a literacy requirement or a requirement that the registrant state his party affiliation.

But it does provide for registration by the voter by his or her husband, wife, mother, father, brother, sister, son or daughter.

Arguments over party affiliation, registration by relatives and literacy tied up voter legislation during the 1963 regular session. Failure to pass such a bill in that session necessitated a special session when adoption of the 24th amendment to the U. S. Constitution outlawed the poll tax registration system Arkansas has used for 40 years.

Cottrell's bill would put registration under direct authority of county assessors and the state auditor would be the records keeper as he is under the poll tax system.

Registration would qualify the voter both for primary and general elections and would cover all offices.

There has been some talk of keeping the poll tax for state elections, which Amendment 24 did not cover.

Cottrell's bill has special provisions for getting the registration system into effect this year. But the regular registration period would be between Jan. 1 and April 10 each year.

The assessors would give the county clerk a list of registered voters by May 20 each year and the clerk would prepare a voting book by May 31.

This year the registration period would be from March 15 to May 15, the voting list would be submitted to the clerk by June 15 and the clerk would prepare the voting books not later than June 20.

The bill makes no special provision for paying the cost of registration, which would be borne by the counties. The provision making county assessors the voter registrar may be controversial because the Arkansas County Assessors Association

Raccoon to Join Smoky the Bear

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Smoky the Bear, inveterate foe of forest fires, is going to be joined in his conservation work by a forest friend—the raccoon.

The National Association of Soil and Water Conservation voted today to adopt the raccoon as its emblem, a symbol of antipollution campaign to keep the nation's streams as clean as the food the little animals eat.

Tax Cut Bill Readied for Approval

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate appeared ready today to give its final approval, by an overwhelming margin, to the $11.6 billion tax cut bill.

Majority leader Mike Mansfield, calling his colleagues in two hours early for the sixth straight day, said he was confident the passage vote would come this afternoon.

Practically all individuals and corporations would get a break under the bill. Most individuals would get reductions of about 19 per cent.

One major hurdle remained for Johnson administration forces who have been in control throughout the long debate.

It was an amendment of Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., to clamp on a $100 billion government spending ceiling so that the individual and corporate tax cuts in the bill would be rescinded any time federal outlays exceeded that figure.

The spending total for the current year ending June 30 is estimated at $98.4 billion. President Johnson has submitted a $97.9 billion budget for the year starting July 1.

Democratic leaders expected to beat down the McClellan proposal with arguments that it would be inflexible and unworkable.

A second major amendment, to be voted on ahead of the spending limitation, would knock out the present stock option plan for corporation executives. It is offered by Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn.

Some additional minor amendments may be offered but Mansfield obtained agreement to limit the time on any further proposed changes in the bill.

has said that assessors are already overburdened with work and oppose any additions to their duties.

KC, Athletics Fail Again to Agree
KANSAS CITY (AP) - The Kansas City Athletics and City Council have failed again to agree on a contract for Municipal Stadium and owner Charles O. Finley is unhappy because the city refused to help with his ticket drive.

"The mayor has said that he has a crew ready to help with the sale of tickets," Finley said after Thursday's negotiations. "But this afternoon when I asked him if he would release them while we are negotiating, he flatly refused. He said he would turn them loose when he had a four-year lease and not before."

Said Mayor Ius W. Davis: "I don't see how he can call on the city to assist him in selling tickets when he doesn't have a lease on the stadium."

In addition to the 14 ahead of him, Palmer was grouped with nine others at 70. This gathering included British Open champion Bobby Charles.

U.S. Open king Julius Boros carded a 69.

After the talks - the sixth since Finley's lease expired - Finley said he would ask for another meeting of American League owners "to bring them up to date."

On Jan. 16 the owners refused his proposal to move the A's to Louisville, Ky. Since then, Finley has talked with officials in Oakland, Calif. about playing there.

Opposition Tough for Mr. Palmer
By DICK STUART
Associated Press Sports Writer PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) - Arnold Palmer's bid to win a fourth straight Phoenix Open Golf Tournament title faced increasing opposition today with 14 golfers ahead of him, Don Fairfield leading the list.

Never has a golfer won the same PGA tour event four consecutive years and going into the second 18 holes, Palmer's attempt rates a long shot - yet isn't impossible.

His opening one-under-par 70 over the flat Phoenix Country Club Course left him four strokes behind Fairfield's 66 and two-behind four players deadlocked at 68. Tied for second were Champagne Tony Lama, Bill Collins, Herman Scharlau and George Archer, the rookie San Francisco pro who won the Trans-Mississippi amateur event on this course last year.

In all, 42 shot par or better over the wind-whipped course in the first round of the 72-hole event with its $50,000 purse.

In addition to the 14 ahead of him, Palmer was grouped with nine others at 70. This gathering included British Open champion Bobby Charles.

U.S. Open king Julius Boros carded a 69.

Radatz Eager to Resume Relief Role
BOSTON (AP) - Hurling Dick Radatz is eager to resume his role as the American League's best relief pitcher and is 27 pounds lighter than a year ago to prove it.

Veteran Gene Conley has scrapped basketball and his dual major league career to concentrate on his attempt at a pitching comeback from 1953 arm trouble.

Both are among seven players who have signed contracts, the Boston Red Sox announced today. The others include Bill Spawick, the man the club hopes becomes the first starting southpaw since Mel Parnell; Bobby Guindon, Jim Gosger; Jerry Dorsch and left-hander Bill Rohr.

Salary figures were not disclosed.

Radatz, 6-foot-6 former Michigan State teammate of National League bullpen ace Ron Perranoski of the Los Angeles Dodgers, was named American League Sophomore of the Year by The Associated Press last fall.

Known as "The Monster," Radatz had a hand in 8 per cent of Boston's 1963 victories, winning 15 and saving 14 more. His 2.03 earned run average was the lowest in the league among pitchers with 10 or more decisions.

In two years of major league pitching the blazing fast-baller has struck out 306 in 257 innings.

Conley, 33, retired from pro basketball last week when he quit the New York Knickerbockers. He'll be on hand when battery candidates report at training camp Feb. 24 for the first time in several years.

Conley won 15 games two years ago but a late season basketball injury contributed to arm trouble, and he had only three victories last season.

by Emmett Dawkins, 41, also a Negro of El Dorado.

Her body was found Monday in a house at El Dorado. Authorities said she apparently died Saturday night of head injuries.

Dawkins told the jury that he and the woman argued over money, struggled, and she fell and hit her head on a table.

No charges have been filed. Dawkins is held in the Union County Jail at El Dorado.

Bobcat Cagers Host Malvern Tonight at 8
By CARTER HARDAGE
Hope Star Sportswriter
All 4AA will have its attention focused tonight on Jones Field House when the Bobcats face league-leading Malvern.

The Panthers have a 5-1 ledger, while Hope shares second place with three other teams. All have 3-3 records. Someone has to whip the Panthers, and Hope has a good chance, especially playing at home.

The "B" Boys will have the first game at 7:00. The Junior game was cancelled because the Malvern Juniors are in a tourney. Senior game is at 8:00. Fans are urged to come out and see a great game and boost the Bobcats at the same time.

Joey Archer, Kid and Mims Are Oldtimers
By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) - Remember the old boxing story about the kid on the way up fighting the veteran with one last chance?

Joey Archer is cast as the kid and Holly Mims as old folks to fight at Madison Square Garden.

Archer is No. 2 in the middleweight rankings, hopeful of a title shot against Joey Giardello in the fall after the champ's six-month period of rest expires.

In the meantime, Archer wants to keep busy, even if it means risking his lofty rating. He has a 38-1 record and is working on a seven-bout winning streak.

Mims once was ranked among the top 100-pounders and was respected as a spoiler for those title bound. He still hopes for the one big break that will restore him to the upper level in his division.

Mims will be 35 Monday and Archer will be 26 Tuesday. Mims has been getting four or five fights a year, losing here and winning there on a path that has won him no great riches or glory. Mims' over-all record is 58-24-6. He never has been knocked out and he has stopped only 13 opponents.

The 10-round match will be carried on network (ABC) television at 10 p.m. EST.

Quachita in 1st Win Over Teachers
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Quachita chalked up its first victory over State Teachers on the Bears' home court in 20 years at Conway Thursday night, 88-81, and kept easy command of the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference basketball race.

Southern State dropped Henderson 84-74 in the only other game.

Teachers trailed 43-33 at halftime, but bounced back to tie it 61-61 and took a 65-63 lead with 8:21 to play.

The Tigers battled ahead again, 66-65, and then sprinted into an 81-67 lead before the Bears began closing the gap.

David Kosover sacked 29 points for Quachita. Mickey McFatridge and Tom Davis each got 19 for Teachers.

Quachita is 12-1 in AIC play, Teachers is 9-5.

Southern State managed to hold onto slim leads most of the way to stop the Reddies at Magnolia.

Midway through the second half the Muleriders broke away and piled up a 78-60 lead, then coasted in as Henderson tried to whittle the margin.

Butch Price hit 21 points for Southern and Bob Shirron put in 21 for Henderson.

Southern is 4-10 in the AIC and the Reddies are 3-10.

THE VERDICT

Have you been in court? Have you witnessed a man on trial for his life? That is a serious thing. Yet, every one of us is in that category... on trial before God every day, every hour. Brilliant attorneys may hang earthly juries and sway human judges but brother, it won't be that way with God. His is really the "court of last resort." There we shall stand naked before Him. He alone will decide our case and pronounce, with poise, the verdict. That, too, is serious. But we have had ample opportunity and have been warned many times. The church steeple on the corner points the way and His word on the pulpit tells us how to get there. When we come before His court, and we shall, the book will be opened... our eternal destiny known... and He will read the verdict.
